Ensemble : _____

Level of difficulty: _____

Special instrumental / vocal requirements: _____

Approximate Length required: _____

I, Alexander McGee (hereafter referred to as the composer) agrees to undertake the commission of the above named piece for the above named ensemble. The agreed number of hours for this commission will be _____ hours resulting in a total fee of £_____. The composer reserved the right to apply and extra 20% of time to ensure the work is completed to the agreed standard and this extra time is charged at the agreed hourly rate of £57.

The commissioner agrees to pay 50% of the fee in advance and the remaining outstanding balance on receipt of the finished score and MIDI recording.

The composer agreed to meet the stipulated deadline for completion. Should the deadline be missed, the commissioner will have the right to terminate the contract and be refunded the full amount of their deposit, whilst also not being liable for any further charge.

Extensions to the deadline must be mutually agreed and the composer is not permitted to charge beyond the agreed additional 20% for extra time taken.

The commissioner will receive a digital (PDF) copy of the score and the parts and receive a MIDI recording for rehearsal purposes. The commissioning ensemble will have the right to perform the work without charge for as long as the ensemble is in existence.

The composer will make himself available for rehearsal time at the request of the commissioning ensemble at the cost of £57 per hour plus travelling expenses. This can be agreed at any point during the process.

The composer will make himself available to conduct the work at the request of the commissioning ensemble at the cost of £57 per hour plus travelling expenses. This can be agreed at any point during the process.
